DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. Claims 1-2,4-6, 8-15, 22-23, 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by JP 8-250745.

Art Unit: 2871

This reference discloses everything; as it is one of the documents which the current application claims priority from. As the current application has an effective filing date of 4/20/1998, this reference is a statutory bar to the claims of the current application.

3. Claims 1-2,4-6, 8-15, 22-23, 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by JP 8-254686.

This reference discloses everything; as it is one of the documents which the current application claims priority from. As the current application has an effective filing date of 4/20/1998, this reference is a statutory bar to the claims of the current application.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
